

created for: Operation Respect in partnership with Peter Yarrow and the News for Students Foundation services provided: concept development, writing, editing and graphic design what it is: curriculum supplement for students with educational activities tied to state and national standards award: Association of Educational Publishers Distinguished Achievement Award 2006

related work: Hollister has produced sponsored educational materials and custom publications for other nonprofits, as well as businesses, associations, cultural organizations, educational and healthcare institutions, foundations and professional sports teams